

Central and Eastern European Online Library (CEEOL)

The Central and Eastern European Online Library (CEEOL) is the leading repository offering a highly specialized and comprehensive collection of full text indexed documents in the fields of humanities and social science publications from and about Central, East and Southeast Europe.

Key peer-reviewed academic and independent journals from the region, effortless access and broad coverage give CEEOL's collection its unique value and high quality.

Essential Resource for researchers, scholars and students

- Access to indexed and archived Journals, eBooks and Grey Literature documents from and about Central, East and Southeast Europe provided by leading academic and independent publishers.
- Content is available in all relevant disciplines in the fields of humanities, social and political sciences, literatures.
- Journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature items are accessible in 30+ languages, allowing access to the primary source in one repository.

BROAD COVERAGE OF CEE/SEE RELEVANT CONTENT

As of 2024, CEEOL covered around 2,900 Humanities journal titles from 34 countries, with articles published in more than 30 languages. The CEEOL coverage is growing monthly by 4,000 newly included journal articles. Significant number of the included journals are represented with complete archival collection.

The CEEOL eBook collection development started in 2016 and offering an ever-growing number of eBooks, as well current year as backlists of the publishing houses.

The CEEOL Grey Literature Collection includes 10,500 Grey Literature items.

WHY CEEOL?

Access to native language sources from and about Central, East, and Southeast Europe's humanities and social sciences by seamless search of and access to journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature documents.

Updated daily, CEEOL offers access to

- 2,900+ journal titles from more than 1,400+ international publishers with 996,000+ indexed and archived articles and a monthly growth by 4,000+ articles
- Search by content, author, title, series, publisher, ISSN, ISBN or key words, or use Advanced Search
- Refine results by source type, year, language, author, and use virtual keyboard for diacritics
- Access the full-text content (articles, eBooks, chapters, Grey Literature)
- Discovery and Linking Collaboration with Google® and GoogleScholar®, Primo®, Alma®, Summon® (Clarivate), EBSCO Discovery Services®, OCLC, Wikipedia Library®
- Journal evaluation by Clarivate®/ Web of science®

For Institutional Users

- Convenient access based on IP authentication
- No simultaneous user restrictions

For Independent Researchers

- Convenient access to documents
- Easy and secure purchase (Micro-Payment via PayPal)
- Personal archive of purchased content

For more information, please contact us at subscriber.support@ceeol.com

The Central and Eastern European Online Library (CEEOL) is the leading repository offering a highly specialized and comprehensive collection of full text indexed documents in the fields of humanities and social science publications from and about Central, East and Southeast Europe. Key peer-reviewed academic and independent journals from the region, effortless access and broad coverage gives CEEOL's collection its unique value and high quality.

BROAD COVERAGE OF CEE/SEE RELEVANT CONTENT

CEEOL covers around 2,900 Humanities journal titles from 34 countries, with 996,000+ articles published in more than 30 languages.

The CEEOL coverage is growing monthly by 4,000 newly included journal articles. Significant number of the included journals are represented with complete archival collection.

The CEEOL eBook collection development has started in 2016 and offers an ever-growing number of eBooks, as well current year as backlists of the partnering publishing houses.

The CEEOL Grey Literature Collection project includes 10,500+ Grey Literature items.

WHY CEEOL?

Essential Resource for researchers, scholars and students

- Access to indexed and archived Journals, eBooks and Grey Literature documents from and about Central, East and Southeast Europe provided by leading academic and independent publishers
- Content is available in all relevant disciplines in the fields of humanities, social and political sciences, literatures
- Journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature items are accessible in 50+ languages, allowing access to the native language sources in one repository

- Convenient access via IP authentication
- DRM free content
- No simultaneous access limitation
- No limitation on downloads
- Bibliographic records on publication and article level
- Full-text content of journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature
- Responsive web-design
- Mobile-accessible on any PDF-compatible device
- Add-on access for alumni
- Flexible subscription models for single titles selection, collections and access-to-all content subscription

For more information, including detailed title lists and fees, please contact us directly at subscriber.support@ceeol.com